

The LPFM stations should not take priority over the current FM translator service. I listen to many FM stations, including WRGN, and believe it serves our community in providing important information that is vital in keeping us informed in many political and economical issues, as well as keeping resources available for providing strong families. I also listen to KLOVE, which also provides valuable information and great encouragement. Thank you for your consideration.